Dear Mr. Alexander Olshevskiy,

On behalf of myself, Shawqi Jaradat, and in the name of the Palestinian Creativity International Foundation, I extend our heartfelt congratulations to you and to the distinguished members of the International Public Chamber on the occasion of your eighth anniversary.

We take this opportunity to express our deep gratitude and appreciation for your noble positions and principled stances in support of just causes and the values of truth, justice, and respect for international law. Your continued advocacy for the rights of peoples, particularly your understanding and solidarity with the Palestinian cause, reflects a deep commitment to humanity, peace, and the building of a more just and harmonious world.

Your efforts in expanding bridges of cooperation between nations and cultures are truly commendable. We hold in high regard the outstanding role you and your esteemed organization play in promoting dialogue, coexistence, and global understanding.

We wish you and the International Public Chamber continued progress, growth, and success in your mission to serve humanity with integrity and compassion.

With our highest respect and sincere appreciation.

Shawqi
