Dear Mr. Alexander Olshevsky!

In support of the creative humanitarian activity of the International Public Chamber in building communities, as a token of love in supporting purposeful humanitarian work, and in appreciation of the significant and distinguished activity of the International Social Chamber, represented by its distinguished staff and the personal efforts of His Excellency the Chairman of the Chamber's Presidium, Mr. Alexander Olshevsky, in developing relations between countries and peoples, especially the Arab and Islamic worlds, and expanding international communication networks to build a more stable, friendly, and harmonious world, free from wars and conflicts, striving to achieve coexistence and good neighbourhood among peoples and all adherents of the divine religions, in order to build a just world, one world characterized by security, peace, justice, and stability.

I congratulate you for the tremendous results achieved during the last eight years and I am convinced in your further success in the future.

Sincerely yours,

Hansjorg Müller
